

Conference: Structural Funds in Health - anamnesis, diagnosis, prognosis 18. - 19. 6. 2013, Pilsen (Plzeň), Czech Rep.

FIRST DAY – Panel presentations

8:30 – 9:00 Registration and Morning coffee

A. Structural Funds in the Czech Republic

9:00 – 9:10 Welcome notes

Marek Ženíšek, deputy Minister of Health, Czech Rep.

9:10 – 09:30 Achievements, values and reality of the IOP 3.2 Intervention: Public Health in the programming period 2007 – 2013

Jan Bodnár, director of the European Funds Department, Ministry of Health, Czech Rep.

9:30 – 09:50 Introduction into IOP (the Integrated Operational Programme)

Rostislav Mazal, deputy director of the Operational Programmes Management Department, Ministry for Regional Development, Czech Rep.

09:50 – 10:10 Health in the Regional Operational Programmes: the Regional Operational Programme 'South-East'

Erika Šteflová, head of the Project Implementation Department Jihlava, Regional Operational Programme NUTS 2 South-East

10:10 – 10:30 coffee break

B. Sharing of experiences

10:30 – 11:00 Sharing experiences with the OP Healthcare

Edmund Škorvaga, director of EU Programmes Department, Ministry of Health, Slovakia

11:00 – 11:30 DRG Project (Diagnosis Related Group) as best practice of systemic intervention of ESF in Poland

Małgorzata Zadorožna, head of the 2nd level Intermediate Body Operational Programme "Human Capital" Unit, European Funds Department, Ministry of Health, Poland

11:30 – 12:30 Lunch break

12:30 – 13:00 SG2 - the Reflection Process on health system

Dóra Horváth, National Institute for Quality and Organizational Development in Healthcare and Medicines (GYEMSZI), Hungary

13:00 – 13:30 Status and Future of National eHealth Initiatives in Estonia

Triin Mahlakoiv, Estonian eHealth Foundation, Estonia

13:30 – 14:00 New concepts in health care delivery – transforming regional healthcare in Finland

Jouko Isolauri, chief Executive Officer, Kanta-Häme Healthcare District, Finland

14:00 – 14:20 coffee break

14:20 – 14:40 Mental health reform in Greece and SF

Stavros Divanis, The Management Organisation Unit, Greece and

14:40 – 15:00 Mental Health Reform evaluation in Greece: Lessons learned

Tasos Mastrogiannakis, Mental Health Policy evaluator, CMT Prooptiki, Greece

C. Brussels perspective

15:00 – 15:30 Final words: Evaluation of the conference and a look into the future

Barrie Dowdeswell, director of Research, European Centre for Health Assets and Research ECHAA, Netherlands/ expert advisor to DG Region for Cohesion Policy for the health sector

about 17:00 Dinner

Conference: Structural Funds in Health - anamnesis, diagnosis, prognosis 18. - 19. 6. 2013, Pilsen (Plzeň), Czech Rep.

SECOND DAY – Round tables

Moderator: Barrie Dowdeswell, director of Research, European Centre for Health Assets and Research ECHAA, Netherlands/ expert advisor to DG Region for Cohesion Policy for the health sector

9:00 – 9:30 Registration and Morning coffee

9:30 – 10:30 Topic: E-health. Is e-health the saviour of public health-care?

Participants:

Soňa Měrtlová, Head of the Department of Health, Vysočina Region, Czech Rep.

Jana Heidenreichová, Head of Application Management and Development, University Hospital in Pilsen, Czech Republic

Fares Shima, Director of the IT Department, Ministry of Health

Helen Hoyer, Estonian Health Insurance Fund, Estonia

Barrie Dowdeswell, director of Research, European Centre for Health Assets and Research ECHAA, Netherlands/ expert advisor to DG Region for Cohesion Policy for the health sector

10:30 – 11:30 Topic: Education. Where did they all disappear? Brain-drain from Central Europe.

Participants:

Zbyněk Podhrázký, deputy director of the Education and Science department, Ministry of Health, Czech Rep.

Vladimír Pavelka, director of the Institute for Postgraduate Education in Medicine, Czech Rep.

Jana Mikulková, director of the National Centre of Nursing and Other Health Professions, Czech Rep.

Małgorzata Zadorožna, Head of the 2nd level Intermediate Body Operational Programme “Human Capital” Unit, European Funds Department, Ministry of Health, Poland

Dóra Horváth, National Institute for Quality and Organizational Development in Healthcare and Medicines (GYEMSZI), Hungary

11:30 – 11:45 coffee break

11:45 – 12:45 Topic: Soft versus hard projects. New buildings or change of system? What is the better way for our healthy future?

Participants:

Jan Bodnár, director of European Funds Department, Ministry of Health, Czech Rep.

Stavros Divanis, The Management Organisation Unit, Greece

Małgorzata Zadorožna, Head of the 2nd level Intermediate Body Operational Programme “Human Capital” Unit, European Funds Department, Ministry of Health, Poland

Jouko Isolauri, Chief Executive Officer, Central Finland Health District

Barrie Dowdeswell, director of Research, European Centre for Health Assets and Research ECHAA, Netherlands/ expert advisor to DG Region for Cohesion Policy for the health sector

12:30 -13:30 lunch